By creating an account, viewing videos, making a purchase, or visiting or using our Services, you accept this Agreement and consent to contract with us electronically.

If you are an entity other than a natural person, the person who registers the account or otherwise uses our Services must have the authority to bind the entity. In this context, “you” means both the entity and each person who is authorized to access the account.

We may update this Agreement by posting a revised version on our website. By continuing to use our Services, you accept any revised Agreement.

This Agreement includes our Privacy Policy below. Please review our Privacy Policy to learn about the information we collect from you, how we use it, and with whom we share it.

2. Our Service

Service License: Subject to the terms hereof, we grant you access to our Services. This includes the right to:

- Stream videos that you have the right to view; and
- Use the video content for education and training purposes for an agreed number of academics and students.

Features: The features available to you will depend on your plan. We may change features from time to time. If you have a paid account, we commit to providing the core video streaming features of your plan during your current service period.

Organizational Accounts: Corporate, governmental, and other organizational users must publicly display the legal name of their entity on their public account profile.

Age Requirements: You must be at least 16 years old or the applicable age of majority in your jurisdiction, whichever is greater, to create an account or otherwise use our Services.

Team Members: Certain subscription plans may allow you to grant other registered users (“academic or student members” or “member/s”) access to the account. Both you and each member is deemed a party to this Agreement. You are responsible for the actions of your members and must monitor their access and usage.

Account Security: You are responsible for all activity that occurs under your account, including unauthorized activity. You must safeguard the confidentiality of your account credentials. If you are using a computer that others have access to, you must log out of your account after each session. If you become aware of unauthorized access to your account, you must change your password and notify us immediately.

4. Subscription Plans

Plan Types: We offer free (Registration) memberships and paid (Premium) subscriptions that allow you to view free or paid-for video content. You may register for free membership by registering through our online application form or purchase a “Premium” plan (you sign up and provide institutional information; this is vetted and upon receipt of our official email and invoice, you pay via an agreed electronic transfer method). Advertised prices and features may change.

Basic Membership: Basic (free) members may view free video clips but may not: access other clips or copy or download any of the videos to which they have access.

Premium Membership: Premium members have access for an agreed number of academic and student members to stream all video content on the site for education and training purposes for the duration of membership. Members may not: (a) download or attempt to download, record or copy any content to which they have access for storage or duplication or commercial use. (b) use any of the material for commercial purposes. (c) allow others (outside of included Institution members) to log into your membership account for the purpose of watching a video. d) If sharing the material for any purposes via an online meeting platform now known or yet to be created, none of the website's material may be recorded or included in recordings shared with participants or anyone unable to join the event for the live streaming.

Fees: You must pay all fees (plus any taxes) in advance for your subscription period and any renewal periods. Our fees include a fixed period fee.

Automatic Renewal: You will be informed in writing if an automatic renewal facility is established. If/when this occurs, to the extent permitted by applicable law, subscriptions will automatically renew at the end of each subscription period unless cancelled beforehand. Annual plans renew for one-year periods. You must pay the annual fee (plus any taxes) when each renewal period starts.

How to Decline Renewal: If/when and automatic renewal facility is put in place, subscribers may opt out of automatic renewal by changing their account settings. Any opt-out or notice of non-renewal will not affect the current subscription period. Left-Eye Productions may decline renewals.

Lapse Policy: When a subscription ends, the account will, at Left-Eye's option, revert to Basic (free) account status or will be deleted. We may publish additional guidelines regarding the treatment of lapsed subscriptions. These guidelines describe current practices only and shall not require us to provide any level of post-subscription account status.

- Marketing and advertising: We may use your data to show you ads on third-party sites. We may also use your data in delivering third-party advertisements to you. This may include "targeted ads" based upon your activities.
- Exercising our rights: Where reasonably necessary, we use your data to exercise our legal rights and prevent abuse of our service. For example, we may use your data to detect and prevent fraud, spam, or content that violates our Terms of Service.

- You may limit the use of cookies. See our Cookie Policy for options.
- You may close your account (which will delete access to all videos).

9. Communications from Us

Emails

If you create an account, you may receive commercial emails from us. This includes newsletters and offers. You may always opt out from receiving commercial messages in your account settings. Please note that any opt-out request may take several days to process and you will continue to receive transactional emails from us (e.g., emails confirming transactions and/or providing information about your account).

Mobile Device Communications

We may, with your consent, send push notifications in our apps (once these are developed). You may disable these by declining them or changing the app's settings. To the extent provided, we may, with your consent, send SMS messages to your mobile telephone for authentication and security purposes. You may opt out of receiving such messages at any time.

10. Protecting Your Information

We use physical, technical, and organizational security measures to safeguard your data from unauthorized or accidental disclosure. Despite these efforts, no information system can be 100% secure, so we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information. Users also have a role to play in keeping their data safe. We encourage you to use a unique and hard-to-guess password for your account and to not share it with others. You should only grant access rights to people who you know and trust, and, even then, you should be careful in granting all access rights. You should monitor your account regularly. If you believe that someone has gained access to your account without your permission, please contact us immediately so that we can investigate.

11. Third-Party Services

We may provide links to online services that we do not own or operate. These services fall outside of this Privacy Policy and we have no control over the data they collect. For example, if you click on an advertisement, you may be taken to the advertiser's website. Once on a third-party site, your data may be collected by others. We encourage you to read the privacy policies of such services before using them.

12. International Data Transfers and Certain User Rights

12.1 Location of Data

Left-Eye Productions is based in South Africa. We provide services globally using computer systems, servers, and databases located in South Africa and other countries. When you use our services from outside of South Africa, your information may be transferred to and processed in South Africa. This Section 12.2 applies only to natural persons residing in the European Economic Area (for the purpose of this section only, "you" or "your" shall be limited accordingly). It is Vimeo's policy to comply with the EEA's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). - Our certification and adherence to the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield frameworks, as described further below.

You have the right to: opt out of non-essential cookies; access, correct, delete, restrict, or object to our use of your personal information; be forgotten; port your data; and withdraw consents. We enable exercise of these rights primarily through our services (which we reserve the right to modify). For example, we allow users to change their information, download their videos, and close their accounts. We also fulfil our obligations in response to direct requests. We will endeavour to process requests within one month. Please note that we may not be able to comply with requests to the extent that they would cause us to violate any law or infringe any other person's rights. We reserve the right to request appropriate identification. We will process requests free of charge unless they would impose an unreasonable cost on us.

If you have a request, complaint or inquiry, please contact us at the address listed in Section 13. We are committed to working with you to obtain a fair resolution of any issue. You also have the right to file a complaint with the supervisory data protection authority of your jurisdiction.
